Ad-hoc-Announcement according to §15 WpHG

Zug, Switzerland, November 18, 2005. The board of The Fantastic Corp. (regulated market/prime standard, Frankfurt) was informed, that Mr. Dr. Luigi Carlo De Micco has raised an objection against the registration of the changes of the bylaws of The Fantastic Corporation, and therefore against the determining resolution of the board of directors concerning the capital increase and the forfeiture of the subscription rights and the already achieved contributions in kind (see Ad-hoc-Announcement of November, 16, 2005).

Therefore the resolutions of the board can temporarily not be recorded in the commercial register and the shares of the first capital increase can furthermore not be delivered to the existing shareholders until the department of commercial registration of Zug (Switzerland) will have judged Mr. Dr. Luigi Carlo De Micco's objection.

Mr. Dr. Luigi Carlo De Micco had already effected a provisional injunction from the court of the canton Zug that temporarily prohibited the initiation respectively continuation of the forfeiture of shares, before. After a statement of the Fantastic Corp, however, the judge in Zug annulled this judgement.

Further information concerning the Fantastic Corp. and its litigation with Mr. Dr. Luigi Carlo De Micco will be published during the course of the day on the company's website (www.fantastic.com).
